

Guidelines for Composers' Recordings

(RESUMES ARE RECOMMENDED)

CRS Competition for Composers' Recording:

CRS is pleased to announce its National Competition for Composers.

The Award of first prize will consist of a commercially distributed new compact disc recording grant featuring one composition along with other distinguished composers and performing artists.

Second and Third Prizes will be awarded Honorable Mention toward future recordings with CRS and Honorary Life Membership to the Society.

The application fee is $50.00 for each taped composition submitted. Please include name, address, and category/ composition(s). All applicants accepted by the CRS committee must send acceptance letter and submit a final date of work(s) to be recorded upon the approval of CRS. In the event a jointly approved date is not accomplished in sixty days of acceptance, applicants will forfeit all rights to recording with CRS. Accepted applicant/ensemble, will contribute all artistic service to this recording for the above benefits. Each annual competition is limited to the first 300 applicants. ALL FEES BEYOND THIS LIMIT WILL BE RETURNED.

1. There are no age restrictions.
2. All inquiries within the U.S.A. and abroad must submit a self-addressed stamped envelope for the application forms. (A postal voucher is submitted by the applicants' mailing district for return credit outside the U.S.A.)
3. The work submitted must be non-published and not commercially recorded in the U.S.A. prior to acceptance of the recording.
4. A self-addressed envelope, including postage, is required for those who wish to have their material returned. (CRS is not responsible for lost or damaged material).
5. The work submitted must not exceed nine performers, unless accompanied by appropriate ensemble represented by the composer.
6. Each composer may submit one work for each application. (Taped performances are encouraged.)
7. CRS members are equally eligible. All applicants under age 19 must submit signatures of legal consent from parent or guardian.
8. Composition must not exceed twenty-five minutes in length.
9. All applications must be submitted and postmarked by May 15th.
