

Guidelines for Performing Artists

(RESUMES ARE RECOMMENDED)

CRS Competition for Performing Artists:

CRS is pleased to announce its National Competition for Performing Artists.

The Award of first prize will consist of a commercially distributed new compact disc recording grant, featuring the performance of several composers' works. The winner will be eligible for public exposure through articles in prestigious publications, reviews and appearances.

The Second and Third prize winners will receive honorable mention toward future recordings with CRS and honorary life membership to Contemporary Record Society for distinguished participation.

Application fee is free for each tape/composition submitted. Please include name, address, and category/composition(s). All applicants accepted by CRS committee must send acceptance letter and submit a final date of work(s) to be recorded upon the approval of CRS. In the event a jointly approved date is not accomplished in sixty days of acceptance, applicants will forfeit all rights to recording with CRS. Accepted applicant/ensemble, will contribute all artistic service to this recording for the above benefits. Each annual competition is limited to the first 300 applicants. TAX DEDUCTIBLE CONTRIBUTIONS ARE GRACIOUSLY ACCEPTED!

1. There are no age restrictions.
2. All inquiries within the U.S.A. and abroad must submit a self-addressed stamped envelope for the application forms. (A postal voucher is submitted by the applicants' mailing district for return credit outside the U.S.A.)
3. A self-addressed envelope, including postage, is required for those who wish to have their material returned. (CRS is not responsible for lost or damaged material).
4. Each applicant may submit one performance tape copy of varied length for each application submitted.
